Digital Storytelling

Join us for a transformative digital storytelling series that features the power of storytelling in our American Indian culture, provides digital resources, and phenomenal coaching. The workshops will use storytelling as a way to learn, share, relate, and heal with the youth around the topics of suicide prevention and drug use. The digital storytelling will give youth a voice and a safe place to share their stories at a peer-to-peer level.

You have a story, come tell it!

You’re Registered, Now Vote!

Over the past few weeks the Phoenix Indian Center and several local agencies such as Native American Connections, ITCA, UNITY, Maricopa Community Colleges, NACA, and Tucson Indian Center have campaigned to "Get Out The Vote!" in an effort to encourage the community to exercise their right to vote.

Registration for the November 2018 election is closed. We will continue to register people for future elections. Watch our messages and website for voter education information to help you with the process. Most importantly VOTE!

Hiring Event!

Are you searching for work? The Phoenix Indian Center is partnering with the City of Phoenix Police Department to conduct a Hiring Event on Monday, October 22nd from 10 AM - 2 PM. Phoenix PD is looking to hire 300 individuals this year. Join us to speak with a police recruitment officer to learn about the Police Recruit positions and the application process. If you or someone you know is interested in the law enforcement industry, this is a great opportunity to connect directly with a recruiter!

Date: Monday, October 22, 2018
Time: 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM
Place: Phoenix Indian Center
4520 N Central Ave, Ste 250 | Phoenix, AZ 85012

Fall Festival

Come learn about the resources at the Native American Community Service Center! What better way to learn about what is offered than to come take a tour? You can also bring the children dressed in their Halloween costumes for trick-or-treating, fun games and activities, vendor booths, free raffles, and enjoy delicious fry bread from Emerson Fry Bread Truck. Join us!

Tuesday, October 23, 2018
3:00 PM - 6:00 PM
Native American Community Service Center
4520 N Central Ave | Phoenix, AZ 85012

Did you know that this event is part of the Native American Recognition Days? Several events are held each year during the months of September - November as part of the Annual Native American Recognition Days in the greater Phoenix area.
